

Cordjia Capital Projects Group to Present at
Maine School Management Association
Annual Fall Conference

Cordjia, in conjunction with Maine School Administrative District #74 (“MSAD #74”) Superintendent Kenneth Coville and Tom Wood of the Maine Forest Service, will be conducting a clinic at the Maine School Management Association’s (“MSMA”) Annual Fall Conference at the Augusta Civic Center.

The clinic, entitled “Opportunities and Benefits of Wood Energy for Maine Schools” will focus on the successful conversion of wood to energy systems by school districts. The clinic will include information on strategies to maximize the benefits from a conversion from oil based heating to wood products based heating.
